Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ. If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves. Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, for each one should carry their own load. Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

God will give peace and mercy to those who follow His ways.

Do Good to All People

Paul gave very practical advice to the Christians about how they should treat others.

Choose letters from the sack to make words top to bottom. Letters may be used more than once. Then read the top letters left to right.

Each person reaps the consequences of his or her own actions.

Unscramble the letters on the leaves of each plant to find what has sprung from each "seed" that was planted.

“Those who sow to please their sinful nature, from that nature will reap _____; those who sow to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap _____.”

Paul knew it is not easy to do what is right, but he encouraged the Christians to not give up.
