Today's Bible Passage: Galatians 5:1-12

(Can you find the highlighted words?)

P	Y	K	S	L	G	R	A	C	E	H	K	It is for freedom that Christ has set us free . Stand firm, then , and do not let yourselves be burdened again by a yoke of slavery . Mark my words! I, Paul , tell you that if you let yourselves be circumcised , Christ will be of no value to you at all. Again I declare to every man who lets himself be circumcised that he is obligated to obey the whole law. You who are trying to be justified by the law have been alienated from Christ; you have fallen away from grace. For through the Spirit we eagerly await by faith the righteousness for which we hope. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision nor uncircumcision has any value. The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love. You were running a good race. Who cut in on you to keep you from obeying the truth? That kind of persuasion does not come from the one who calls you. "A little yeast works through the whole batch of dough." I am confident in the Lord that you will take no other view. The one who is throwing you into confusion, whoever that may be, will have to pay the penalty. Brothers and sisters, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still being persecuted? In that case the offense of the cross has been abolished. As for those agitators, I wish they would go the whole way and emasculate themselves!

Living by the Spirit is the opposite to obeying our sinful nature.

Match the opposites.

Paul said that the whole Old Testament
law could be summed up in 1 command.

Place letters around the circle to form overlapping words. (The last letter of a word is the first letter of the following word.) Clues are given between the spokes. Starting at the arrow and going clockwise, read the resulting message.
