

Rewind (part 2)

John 16:25-17:5

Understanding the Bible:

What is the problem being expressed in this Bible passage?

How does God show up in this Bible Passage?

What does Jesus say he will do for his disciples and give to his disciples, even in a world full of troubles?

My favorite song today:

Things I will pray for this week:

Today's Bible Passage: John 16:25–33

“Though I have been speaking figuratively, a time is coming when I will no longer use this kind of language but will tell you plainly about my Father. In that day you will ask in my name. I am not saying that I will ask the Father on your behalf. No, the Father himself loves you because you have loved me and have believed that I came from God. I came from the Father and entered the world; now I am leaving the world and going back to the Father.” Then Jesus’ disciples said, “Now you are speaking clearly and without figures of speech. Now we can see that you know all things and that you do not even need to have anyone ask you questions. This makes us believe that you came from God.” “Do you now believe?” Jesus replied. “A time is coming and in fact has come when you will be scattered, each to your own home. You will leave me all alone. Yet I am not alone, for my Father is with me. “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”

“I have told you these things, so that in Me you may have peace,” said Jesus.

In Jesus We Have Peace

Jesus said to His disciples, “Soon I will tell you plainly about My Father.”

Finish the pattern in each row.

Circle 7 differences in the bottom picture.

“In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.”
